Party A	Northstar Technologies Ltd., 400 Harbor View Drive, Suite 900, Seattle, WA 98101 — represented by Alex Norman (alex@northstar.example)
Party B	Vantage Partners Inc., 245 Commerce Ave, Denver, CO 80202 — represented by Maya Kapoor (maya@client.example)
Purpose	Evaluating a potential business relationship between the parties

1. Definition of Confidential Information

“Confidential Information” means any non-public information disclosed by either party, whether orally, in writing, or in electronic form, that is designated as confidential or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure.

2. Obligations of Receiving Party

Each receiving party shall (a) use the disclosing party's Confidential Information solely to evaluate the potential relationship described above, (b) protect it using at least the same degree of care it uses for its own confidential information of similar importance, and (c) not disclose it to any third party without the disclosing party's prior written consent.

3. Exclusions

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the receiving party; (b) was rightfully known to the receiving party before disclosure; (c) is rightfully obtained from a third party without restriction; or (d) is independently developed without use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information.

4. Term

The obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement remain in effect for three (3) years from the date of disclosure of the applicable Confidential Information.

5. No License; No Obligation

Nothing in this Agreement obligates either party to proceed with any transaction, and no license or other right is granted under any patent, copyright, trademark, or trade secret by this Agreement.

6. Remedies

Each party acknowledges that unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy, and that the disclosing party is entitled to seek injunctive relief in addition to any other available remedies.

7. Governing Law & Entire Agreement

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Washington. It constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior discussions on that subject.
